Emily,

I was just asked the below question, after reading through that question and answers, I think she's right that it should read "No, I have been coping as well as ever". Can you please clarify?

Thanks,
Carrie

Subject: EPDS question

On the EPDS in the database, is there an error on the question, "Things have been getting on top of me" on the answer "No, I haven't been coping as well as ever."
Is it supposed to be haven't or have been coping as well as ever?
